It is an open air Market where vendors can rent space to sell what they have made, grown or harvested. Storage cabins are available for merchandise storage on some spaces. It is not in competition with local farmers' markets. It is a supplement to them.

Where is it located?

The Market is located on U.S. Hwy 221 South, just south of the twin bridges crossing the New River. It is between West Jefferson and U.S. Hwy 421 in Ashe County, North Carolina.

What can be sold at the Market?

If it is handmade, homemade or grows in the ground, you can sell it. Antiques are the only used items permitted for sale.

U.S. 221 has a high traffic count each day of the year (7,200 cars on average per day) so the potential customer base, whether local or seasonal residents or tourists is extremely high.
Easy access and parking to the Market.
